

Biodiversity of terrestrial ecosystems on the Dutch Caribbean islands

Program 24 May, room Gaia 1, Wageningen (Droevendaalsesteeg 3)

1230-1300 Arrival (Gaia Building, main hall)

1300-1310 Welcome by John Janssen (WUR)

1310-1335 Erik Houtepen (Carmabi) - Vegetation development after removal of goats in the Christoffelberg National Park on Curaçao

1335-1400 Sylvia van Leeuwen (Naturalis) - The terrestrial mollusc fauna of Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao

1400-1430 Sander Mûcher (WUR) - Land use changes on Aruba

1430-1500 coffee break

1500-1525 André van Proosdij (WUR) - Vegetation changes on St Eustatius over 25 years

1525-1550 Hannah Madden (Waardenburg Ecology) - Pre/post-hurricane population estimates of the Bridled Quail-dove on St. Eustatius

1550-1615 Dolfi Debrot (WUR) - The iguana's of Saba and St Eustatius

1615-1630 Summary of the day & final remarks

For attendance life or online, please register yourself by sending an e-mail to: john.janssen@wur.nl